FROM PRETORIA/JOHANNESBURG

We recommend travelling via Dullstroom, as it offers the most scenic and comfortable route. The journey should take approximately 5½ hours (463 km).

- From OR Tambo International Airport, follow the R21 (towards Boksburg). Take exit 429A for Rondebult Road / N12 East and follow signs for Witbank (eMalaheni) and Middelburg. Merge onto the N4 and continue past Middelburg.
- After Middelburg, take the R33 Belfast turnoff from the N4 (where the Engen One Stop is), turn left on the R33 and follow signs towards Belfast and Dullstroom. Go through the town of Belfast and then turn right on the R540 road towards Dullstroom.
- Dullstroom is the halfway mark between JHB and the camp. It's a scenic place to stop, explore and have lunch. From Dullstroom you will head towards Lydenburg/Mashishing, which is roughly 50 km away.
- Continue on the R540 but look out for potholes. Once you get to Lydenburg (also referred to as Mashishing) junction, turn left onto the R36 and go through the town centre. The R36 is also called Viljoen street. Carry on straight and turn left on Buhrmann Street.
- At the Total Garage, turn right onto De Clerq Street, which is also the R36. Continue straight on the R36 which becomes the R527. This road takes you past the town of Ohrigstad, over the Abel Erasmus pass, and through the Strijdom tunnel. It's about 50 km from Lydenburg to Ohrigstad.
- After the tunnel, continue for another 40/50 km until you reach the town of Hoedspruit. There are 4 stops before you reach the railway bridge. After the railway bridge, you turn left on the R40 towards Phalaborwa / Tzaneen.
